DISCIPLE ONE ANOTHER (part 2) Mike Gilson

Following my talk on Sunday, I've puzzled over what sort of notes to offer you this week. This is because the people in our groups will be at different stages in their walk with Jesus. Some will benefit most from understanding what a disciple is, and others will be ready and waiting to be inspired and prepared to be purposefully making disciples.

So I have, with slight nervousness, provided you with the first 2 chapters from the book 'Multiply' by Francis Chan. The first looks at what a disciple is, and the second looks at how to make a disciple. You can see that it depends on what your group is like as to which chapter may be most suitable.

So, how I suggest you do it, is to ask people in the group to take turns in reading the sections and the question that follows each one. There may be one or two sections you feel can be cut down or miss out to shorten the session.

The material is really good (and free - so no copyright issue). There is even a video with both sessions - 6 minutes - that you could watch with the group. Check all of it out on the internet at <https://s3.amazonaws.com/multiplymovement.com/index.html>.

You can get there just by typing in multiplymovement.com.

I pray this session will be inspiring and challenging.

There are supplied pdf copies of the 2 chapters.
